

Give us this Day Our Daily Bread.

Sounds like God leans toward praying in the morning.
How about your family?

God feeds the animals and birds, the poor people and the rich people.

He always has time for the Hungry.

God tells us to ASK Him for the things we need but after we ask he commands us to TRUST. TRUST is a very large part of all prayer. Children need to learn this very early in life.