

God wants us to tell Him and our favorite grownups when people hurt us.

We should not keep something like being hurt a secret. After we talk about it God will help us forgive those who hurt us.