Prayer Request for my Mother.

Take this request to your churches Prayer Chain???

Mom has been diagnosed with congestive heart failure. Could your church pray that God lift her spirits and heal the muscle of her heart?

My younger brother Phillip has been having a lot of problems remembering the word he wants to say. We do not know how serious the problem is. Hope you might say a prayer?

For myself and our Pocket Scripture Project. I have read that Christians should not be grouchy. This most likely means that there is some problem between God and I or some lesson I have yet to learn. Could you pray for grace to sleep better at night and God's help to rise early in the morning to get his work done before the troubles of the day intrude. Scripture says that "Love is not irritable" but I am. Hope you might pray for God's help with this. Mostly though I worry about Mom and her congestive heart failure. Hope your church might continue to pray for her?

Kevin Allen (the son of a cousin) is in a body cast because of a badly fractured vertebra. We are hoping he will not require surgery BUT mostly that God quiet his impatience to get back to work. The Doctors are saying 3 months maybe longer, maybe much longer but Kevin feels he needs the money and is making loud noises about returning to his very strenuous job in three weeks...may God grant him freedom from worry and help him with sound judgement.
