

No bible verse can be understood unless the Holy Spirit helps us. Especially this one. For me the verse means that prayer in the spirit is sort of like dancing with God and letting him lead. I hope you will pray for God to help you understand in your own way.

